

Job Posting

Native English Speaker (m/f/x)

(max. 6 hours)

The Free School Kremstal is a private school with public status from grades 1 to 9, based on the pedagogy of Maria Montessori, the experiences of Mauricio & Rebeca Wild, and findings from learning and brain research.

We are looking for

- A Native English Speaker

Your Requirements

- Montessori training is advantageous
- Professional experience in progressive education is advantageous
- Willingness to work in a team and collaborate with the association board
- Commitment to personal development and general engagement

Your Responsibilities

- Supporting students
- Creating a prepared and inspiring environment
- Non-directive guidance and inspiring students (Primary, Secondary)
- Implementation of the pedagogical school concept
- Planning learning objectives and documenting learning progress
- Biweekly team meetings and annual retreat with association members
- Collaboration with the association board (discussion and decision-making)
- Cooperation with external partners and other free schools

Our Philosophy

- Philosophy Mindful interaction with people and the environment
- Every person is curious and eager to learn from birth
- Learning develops through interest and personal initiative
- Learning requires a protected environment for individual support
- Learning follows inner impulses and individual paces
- Movement is a necessary component of life and learning

We offer

- Marginal or part-time employment
- Varied activities in an engaged environment
- Team supervision and team retreat
- Gross monthly salary (€ 3.242,-- fulltime) according to the minimum wage tariff for employees in private educational institutions with willingness to pay above scale depending on experience.

Work location: Magdalenabergstraße 29 - 4643 Pettenbach, Bezirk Kirchdorf

Please apply via email to: office@freieschule-kremstal.at